習得できる知識・能力や 授業の目的・到達目標	By the end of the semester, students will be able to ask questions in discussions, respond to speakers, share and support opinions, and will be able to make effective presentations. The textbook provides activities for students to exchange opinions on topics relevant to their life. They will be given opportunities to think critically about their culture and cultures around the world to help them develop their discussion skills. For the final presentation and students will gather information on the theme and share with the group helping them to deepen their discussions even further. Grammar and vocabulary issues during presentations and discussions will be resolved through peer and instructor feedback. At this level there is focus on adding to and expanding their understanding of new and challenging grammar and vocabulary. Speeches are evaluated twice during the semester, helping them learn effective presentation methods for their final presentation.
